Well i'm gonna have to give up something that means the world to me and I dont know what im gonna do or how im gonna be yea im puttin it down gonna try to stand on my two feet so this is the last time the needles going in to try to set my soul free i dont know what im gonna do but somethings gotta change cause all the Heroin and downers are takin away my flame ive done had four friends die around me now i realize that old number 5 just might be me

Once your a junkie they say itll never go away but at least im gonna try to make it through one more day im just now startin to tune into who im suppose to be so im breakin the chains of the needle thats had a hold on me i dont know what im gonna do but somethings gotta change cause the Heroin and downers are taking away my
flame
ive done had four friends die around me
and i realize that old number 5 just might be me yea i realize that old number 5 just might be me
