Some day you'll find out what it means to be blue
'Cause everybody pays for the things that they do
You broke something precious, sacred and true
Darlin', what did love ever do to you?

I still can't believe what I'm feelin'
As my heart turns slowly to stone
I'm staring a hole through the ceiling
The memory of your leaving won't let go

Some day you'll find out what it means to be blue
'Cause everybody pays for the things that they do
You broke something precious, sacred and true
Darlin', what did love ever do to you?

Your words built the walls of this prison
And like a fool I'm doin' time for you
I searched through my mind for a reason
But when you left, you left me without a clue

Some day you'll find out what it means to be blue
'Cause everybody pays for the things that they do
You broke something precious, sacred and true
Darlin', what did love ever do to you?

You broke something precious, sacred and true
Darlin', what did love ever do to you?
