Well it's Monday night
A new week has begun
I turn on my TV
For some pigskin fun
I see a Super Bowl season here on ABC
The biggest game each week is their specialty
I gotta get ready, make everything right
Cause Monday night football's coming on tonight

Are you ready
Are you ready
Are you ready, ready
Are you ready for some football?

A Monday night party
Hey, this is "Rocking" Randall Hank
Ready to get the good time started
We got the teams on the field
And we turned down the lights
All my rowdy friends are back for Monday night

Now everyone watches this prime time show
New York, Nashville, San Francisco
We love to watch the kickoff as the game begins
Pretty cheerleaders and las minute wins
The screaming crowd and the linebacker's stare
Scrambling quarterbacks and signals in the air
Big hits are coming, the 'backs are cutting inside
Everybody turns it up Monday night

Everybody's a fan
Hey, this is the biggest party, man
We got Frank, and Al, and Dan
They got the thing started
Week after week, it's the time that is right
All my rowdy friends are here on Monday night
