I had a night hour five day job at Kentucky Fried Trying to make the payments on a beat-up truck and a double wide Momma always said son use a little common sense
So I took her at her word and decided I could supplement
I had an old Les Paul I hauled out from under the bed And the number of a drummer knew somebody in the grateful dead
Oh I got him on the line and we talked a while then he said I'm glad you called We need a guitar player and a man that can sing it all I started makin' me some guitar money
Guitar money
Yeah I sure do like it when the people start screamin' turn it up Turn it up
Guitar money
Guitar money
No it ain't no wonder old Elvis quit driving that truck
We met a man in Atlanta said he would sign us up today
He was a big mover and a shaker make a record radio might play Yeah maybe I will and maybe I won't make it to the hall of fame
But either way it goes you'll never hear me complain
Yeah makin' guitar money gui gui gui gui guitar money
I sure do like it when the girls start screamin' crank it up Crank it up
Guitar money
Guitar money
Hey it ain't no wonder Elvis quit a drivin' that truck
Yeah makin' guitar money
T-shirt money
I sure do like when the girls start screamin' turn-it turn-it turn-it turn-it turn-it way up Hey guitar money

How about this here lick honey No it ain't no wonder old Elvis quit drivin' that truck

Here's some for you Cousin Gene too
Aunt Loretta
Uncle Earl
And you and you and you and you and you I'm makin' all kinda guitar money Times are good guitar money
Oh a whole lotta guitar money
