

Hank Williams Jr. "Old School"

Visit "Old School" on MotoLyrics.com

I remember a young Johnny Cash waiting in the wings Cause heâ€™d hand me his cigarette when heâ€™d go out to sing
And good ole Marshall Tucker Band back in 83
Was a special night they asked me
Come on out and play â€˜Canâ€™t You Seeâ€™
Dolly was a teenage girl when I first met her wow Jerry Lee played rock n roll at my house and Iâ€™m proud
Iâ€™m from the old school
But I made up my own rules
But I learned a thing or two
From some pretty good teachers
My education has served me well
One look at me and you can tell my musicâ€™s true
A class reunion of the blues
Iâ€™m from the old school
Well things were kinda rough at times I had to find my way
Not exactly an overnight sensation like some are today Hey Iâ€™m a dinosaur thatâ€™s for sure but hereâ€™s what I gotta say
To anyone that questions my credentials â€œHi,
Iâ€™m Hankâ€
And Iâ€™m from the old school
But I made up some new rules
And you might learn a thing or two if ya hang around
Iâ€™ll teach you to write and play n sing â€˜em
Take the guitars out and string â€˜em
Weâ€™ll make your music true
A class reunion of the blues
Iâ€™m from the old school
And after all the songs are sang
Letâ€™s all stop and have a drink
From my old bar stool
Hey everybody hereâ€™s to the old school

Visit Hank Williams Jr. page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.