I've met a girl or two in my lifetime and I've loved a few
but not the right time
I think I'm a wastin' my time lovin' anyone but you
You got a hold on me I just can't seem to break free I walk a girl to town and start to fool around but honey you're the rock in my shoe I stroll into the night spots thinkin' that I'm something real hot
I got a pretty girl and she's got a lot but I know she ain't true
It's just not the same I'm playin' a fool's game Oh when I start to dance and try to make romance honey you're the rock in my shoe Now my heart has reached that decision cause my mind keeps havin' a vision No --- hers and his and and I guess I always knew You'd make the bells ring and pull my heart strings
I'm walkin' down the aisle with the great big smile Cause there ain't no rocks in my shoe There's always a rock in my shoe when I walk with someone new I try to find love in another's arms but it seems I just dream of you Now my heart has reached...
I'm walkin' down the aisle...
