"All the Love I Ever Had"

One time you know I loved you true
There was nothing I wouldn't do
But you have treated me so bad
You killed all the love I ever had.

You leave me alone and run around
You were the talk of the town
It made you glad to see me sad
You killed all the love I ever had.

No one knows the torture I went through
Loving you and knowing you were untrue
It's over now and I'm so glad
You killed all the love I ever had.

All these years I've set and cried
A thousand times my poor soul died
You have treated me so bad
You killed all the love I ever had...
