I used to have a nice life
I used to live by the right
But I've strayed from the good side of the lord
And I flirted with the Devil and he dealt me a card
And he told me that you will never win
And he told me that I was his only friend
I had nothing to go home too
So I sold my soul to the Devil now I'm blue
I never thought it could be this bad
Hurtin like this Oh, its killin me bad
And now I'm stuck in a life of pain
And I got the devil takin me away

And he told me that you will never win
And he told me that I was his only friend
I had nothing to go home too
So I sold my soul to the Devil now I'm blue
