Out on the perilous deep
Where danger silently creeps
And storm so violently sweep
You're drifting too far from the shore.

Chorus
Drifting too far from the shore
You're drifting too far from the shore
Come to Jesus today, let Him show you the way
You're drifting too far from the shore.

Today the tempest rolls high
And the clouds overshadow the sky
Sure death is hovering nigh
You're drifting too far from the shore.

Chorus
Drifting too far from the shore
You're drifting too far from the shore
Come to Jesus today, let Him show you the way
You're drifting too far from the shore.

You're drifting too far from the shore...
