(Big boi)

Oh snap these bitches they act like cats
In the middle of the dance floor now they preparing to

They takin out their scrunchies and pullin off their

The one on the right is the girlfriend and the one the left is the other woman
Someone please call security
These girls too purty
To get down to the nitty titty
I mean the nitty gritty
I mean her tiitty pretty

Being silly willy
Man go on let them hos fight

We bout to throw them bows
We bout to swang them thangs

(chorus and bridge)

Don't act you don't know
We break upside yo dome
So be quick enough to block yo dome
And you wont be talkin that no more
Don't act you don't know
We break upside yo dome
So be quick enough to block yo dome
And you wont be talkin that no more
So you betta come outside
