"Falling Again"

Visit "Falling Again" on MotoLyrics.com

On the ground I'm all lost
Now I'm falling to pieces again
I can't sleep I can't breathe
You're the only one that makes me weak
Like memories you are fading away...

I can see I can feel
I'm all lost and now I'm falling falling again
Another time another place
But I'm lost and now I'm falling falling again

I walk on, with the pain
Try to pick up the pieces again
You're still there in my head
All the words that were said wish them back
Like memories they are still haunting me...

I can see I can feel
I'm all lost and now I'm falling falling again
Another time another place
But I'm lost and now I'm falling falling again

How can I win how can I close the door
Need to get back to who was before

I can see I can feel
I'm all lost and now I'm falling falling again
Another time another place
But I'm lost and now I'm falling falling again

I can see I can feel
I'm all lost and now I'm falling falling again
Another time another place
But I'm lost and now I'm falling falling again
