Hey
hidden star you're so near yet so far

I'm
just a girl
wanna dance
in your heart

You
look so sad
what is wrong?
what went bad?

I'd
soothe your pain
let me wash
it away

If I ever get close to you
If I ever get close to you
If I ever get

Would you open up your window?
Would you smile and let me in?
Our life could be easy
we could have everything we could walk upon the water be heroes for all days
our life could be fantastic love in a million shades
love in a million shades

So why
don't you say

hello
once again

Reach
out your hand
won't let go
till the end

If I ever get close to you
If I ever get close to you
If I ever get

Would you open up your window?
Would you smile and let me in?
Our life could be easy
we could have everything
we could walk upon the water
be heroes for all days
our life could be fantastic
love in a million shades
love in a million shades
