What you see is what you never get turn the table and stab yourself instead driving on a road to emptiness plunge into a dream that never ends

Before we fall apart, it's down to one good heart

Make believe when you close your eyes
(Say that you're mine tonight)
Make believe it's a one big lie
(Tell me one more time)
Tell me one more time
That you'll be there by my side
Make believe when you close your eyes
(Swear that you'll be by my side)

Holding on to what you think is right break your back when you try to win the fights keep on pushing, keep your dreams up high I will guide you through the deepest fire before we fall apart

Make believe when you close your eyes
(Say that you're mine tonight)
Make believe it's a one big lie
(Tell me one more time)
Tell me one more time
That you'll be there by my side
Make believe when you close your eyes
(Swear that you'll be by my side)

All the memories are lost the darkness hides away the star It's you that keep on searching for another way to keep holding on but oh, don't let go, it's never too late

Make believe when you close your eyes
(Say that you're mine tonight)
Make believe it's a one big lie
(Tell me one more time)
Tell me one more time
That you'll be there by my side
Make believe when you close your eyes
(Swear that you'll be by my side)
