The reflection in your eye
Is revealing what's inside
It makes me wonder,
Everyday that's passin' by
Am I livin in a lie
Can you feel it
Do you feel it

Where do we go
What do we do
You say you sorry
Say you sorry
I put my trust
My faith in you
You say your sorry
Say your sorry

Can you feel it
Do you feel it

Like a well that's running dry
Like a devil in disguise
Should I forget it
I can't watch it fade away
Like the word from yesterday
Can you feel it
Do you feel it
