Night after night
Been trying to make things right
Don't know what else to do
Guess I'm wasted on you

Day after day
I dream my life away
This dream just won't come true
Cause I'm wasted

On you You say I'm too good to be true
The fact is: I'm too good for you
I finally know I got screwed
Got wasted on you

Time after time
You're acting out of line
All the things you put me through
Guess I'm wasted on you

No, no slow goodbyes. Got no time
Time to analyze. Got no time
Time I should've spent on finding somebody new Got wasted

On you You say I'm too good to be true
The fact is: I'm too good for you
I finally know I got screwed

Intoxicated, you run through me veins
Sobering up, then I do you again
One day it's your turn, and you'll come unglued
You'll realize what I always knew

On you I wake up and I see truth
This break up is way overdue
I'm beating myself black and blue
Cause I'm wasted
