well I guess this isn't what I had in mind
and I can already tell by the way that you talk that you've got something to hide but the night is so young and the day was so long

we can be lovers in the sun we can play around like we're young cross our hearts and hope to die swear by stars that light the night and turn the lights down low and we'll start to dance
and get close
and you hold onto my hands and I can't help but feel like this is
I can't help but feel like this is good

I guess this isn't what we had in mind
and I can already tell
by the look in your eye that something's going on inside

so let's just be lovers in the sun
and turn the lights down
this is good
this is good

and time keeps passing as I think things out and my mind keeps asking why I wait so long

this is goodx5 (
