Under the stars on the hood of your car
I'm pouring out my heart but I know that you aren't listening
Only pretending
Look in my eye saying everything right
But there's a part of me now that can't deny I'm wishin
We were kissin
Come on let's be real we both know how you feel

Chorus

You just want me
To lay down beside you so nothing will remind you your just lonely
Like a trophy on your shelf
Something to make you feel good about yourself
Tonight you can say that you love me
But I know baby
You just want me

Now don't you try to tell me that I've lost my mind
And that it's all my imagination and I'm mistaken
I wish that I was but I know enough if we went there it wouldn't be love we were makin
I won't fake it
No I can't go on
When I know what's goin on

Chorus

I won't be some trophy
On your shelf
Something to make you feel good about yourself
Tonight you can say that you love me
But I know baby
You just want me
You just want me
You just want me
