After all
the work is done
from struggles
i faced before

I saw the light that shined bright
right on ma face
with all its height

I know the world after all its ours and i know know them brightly they shine with colors like green or blue
other things that take place when its me and you

After all things are the same as they have to be

after all the struggles its you and me

I feel safe under your shadow it feels so nice to be with each other

After all i learned from you to have to trouble to extend the problem and find the solutions

After all its the others that find us together
i love you
thats the problem
i would love you all day
