My friend, lift up your eyes, the light is strong
Darkness is broken by the power of this bond
Bird of peace, fly down out of the sun
And settle in our hearts, for we are one

You are my kindred spirit
The light in your soul is always with me
And we'll hold each other under angel wings
Shelter one another under angel wings
This perfect union cannot grow old
Where our hands have touched, a lovely flower grows
One symbol at the faith one promise ain't forever
To never walk alone, but walk together

You are my kindred spirit
The light in your soul will always shine on me
You are my kindred spirit
And we'll hold each other under angel wings
Shelter one another under angel wings

So take this hand I offer
And call yourself my brother
We'll write down our names in red rock
And raise the spirit up

When the rain falls, I'll answer your call
You can put your trust in me
When you cry to the moon, I'll be beside you
And give you all the strength you need
I'll give you hope and carry you home
It never ends, this is for life
The love of a friend will never die

You are my kindred spirit (And let the light of my soul come in)
The light in your soul will always shine on me (And call yourself my Brother)
You are my kindred spirit

It never ends, this is for life

The love of a friend will never die

You are my kindred spirit (When the rain falls, I'll answer your call)

The light in your soul will always shine on me (Call yourself my brother)

You are my kindred spirit

It never ends, this is for life

The love of a friend will never die
