I was feeling hungry, I didn't have no money, no
But I was like you'd say, "Off the hook"
And sometimes it hit me quite hard
I started searching for, for what I don't know I suppose I started searching, searching for money and fame
Yes, I wild, wild, wild, wild through the night
Sometimes blind, blind, blind until it was light
But it was my life

I got prostituted, I just had to get some money, y'know
But let me tell you the more I got the faster it went Sometimes there's the danger of not getting paid
But sometimes I was out all night offering the service I gave Yes, I was, yes, I was wild, wild, wild, wild through the night
Sometimes blind, blind, blind until it was light

Cafe Avenue, I'm comin' back to you once more
To see the same old fools and freaks
Sitting at the same old tables

Cafe Avenue, I'm comin' back to you once more
You still remember how bad, things were once before
It makes no difference how you are, it makes no difference how you look
In the Cafe Avenue

But now, I've found a shelter
And things have turned out much better, yeah
Oh, let me tell you, nowadays it's so easy to look back
Sometimes there's the danger of not getting paid Sometimes I was out all night offering the service I gave

Cafe Avenue, I'm comin' back to you once more
To see the same old fools and freaks
Sitting at the same old tables, yeah

Cafe Avenue, I'm comin' back to you once more
You still remember how bad, bad things were once before

It makes no difference how you are, it makes no difference how you look
In the Cafe Avenue
