I know you were lonely till you found yourself with us
Now we're the only company you need to find comfort
In the night bank robbery is your life

We gave you a knife, we gave you a Smith & Wesson We gave you ourselves to trust on, women get out of our way
'Cause if you stay you gotta pray for your lives

We came today to check out the situation
But we'll be back soon in full attack
Tonight we'll drink till dawn as we sing our outlaw songs

Ten thousand heartaches, baby
Ten thousand heartaches now
Ten thousand heartaches, baby
Could never break this cowboy heart of mine

We kill the men and rape all the women
Sometimes we even shoot down the children Outlaws don't feel no pity and outlaws is what we are

We both come floating down the street
We shoot down anyone we see Outlaws don't feel no pity because of what we are

Desperados

Ten thousand heartaches, baby
Ten thousand heartaches now
Ten thousand heartaches, baby
Could never break this cowboy heart of mine

We are the desperados
We brought the death to El Dorado
We are the desperados
We're like tornadoes

Ten thousand heartaches, baby
Ten thousand heartaches now
Ten thousand heartaches, baby

Could never break this cowboy heart of mine

This town won't ever rise up again and you'll never see us again

And the woman who tried to break my heart
Now her head and body are apart

The tales we tell for generations to come about the fires

And somewhere in the night you can still hear the melody

But it's the memory that's scaring you

Ten thousand heartaches, baby

Ten thousand heartaches now

Ten thousand heartaches, baby

Don't look back know why we brought the death to El Dorado
