

Hanoi Rocks "Fallen Star"

Visit "Fallen Star" on MotoLyrics.com

I've been drinkin' quite a lot lately
Been thinkin' of the times when you made a star Times do change and we must rearrange our lives with it

I'd like to send you a postcard but still Don't know your address, don't remember your name It's funny how your face is still in my eyes, hidden by a tear

I do believe in that one day you'll rise again I'll always keep on believing, it gives me strength to carry on
Without love the dark night's a million miles away
