It took me quite a while to figure out but my conclusion left me without doubt it was perfectly clear she had moved out of here for good

She could have done it in a nicer way she left me washing up and bills to pay and a note on the wall, said "Don't bother to call again"

Didn't love her anyway
well, that's what you're supposed to say that it's good to be free I just care about me

Ref.
Because I shouldn't really worry she'll come back to me again it's the first time around that I'm left with the sound and all the emptiness in me and it's become an institution of her leaving me this way and a feeling inside says she's gone for a ride and will be back sometime today my little runaway

I guess we could have had a brighter start I can't be happy with a broken heart and it's easy to see you don't care about me at all I know I see it from a different view I know I'll always keep on loving you So if you will return you will see that I burn for you

Didn't love her anyway
well, that's what you're supposed to say
that it's good to be free
I just care about me

Ref.

(Solo - Michael Monroe)

Love is a strange situation that anybody could see if it's good from the start then it tears you apart and you wonder where your baby would be
