Dreaming men are haunted men, So please don't ask me to dream of you I never learned how to pretend, I don't believe, that dreams come true
There ain't no refuge for the restless mind , Oh, No, Love and lunacy are intertwined Oh yeah, I can't stand your love for me and all that it entails
Cos I am menaced by Nightingales, Cos I am menaced by Nightingales, Cos I am menaced by Nightingales
You Think I'm lonely, You think it's sad
You think your love could rescue me, But I've tried love and it's always been bad It steals your strength and your sanity, there ain't no refuge for my restless mind, Oh, no and love and lunacy are intertwined, So I reject your love for me and all that it entails

Cos I am menaced by Nightingales, I am menaced by Nightingales, I am menaced by Nightingales
So I reject your love for me, and all that it entails Cos I am menaced by Nightingales , I am menaced by Nightingales
