Well the musics slowly dying and i'm jumping outta my jeans

I jump into the bed your there already waiting for me

Ain't this a perfect way to spend the night

There ain't no better way of killing time

Than loving you, your that a girl oh oh,

It's reached top speed and i'm getting inside you

Well this is hot stuff mama, taste it, it sure tastes good

Yes it does,

It may be cold outside but in you the fires burning

And when you bite me woman i no, love is hurting

Oh tragedy, life reminds me bout a symphony on the radio

First a little bit to fast then a little bit much to slow

Oh tragedy, life reminds me bout a symphony i heard today

First a little bit to fast then a little bit much to slow for me,

Ow!!!

I wake up in the morning and i feel the pain in my head

If it's rest i need, i'd rather be dead,

No destinations in this life i live

No expectations i just drift and drift and drift

Life is like tragedy reminds me bout a symphony on the radio

First a little bit to fast then a little bit much to slow

First a little bit to fast then a little bit much to slow for me,

For me let's go!!!

Life is like tragedy reminds me bout a symphony on the radio

First a little bit to fast then a little bit much to slow

First a little bit to fast then a little bit much to slow for me,

For me ow!!!
