Layin' on floorboards, tryin' to get forwards
Lookin' for a place to sway
Starin' at the stars
They are as close as they are far away

Can't you tell that I really ain't a people person
I'm the real deal, I ain't a cover version
Welcome to the rock'n'roll jukebox of my life

I got the transcendental groove
It really makes you wanna move
It makes you get up on your feet,
Get out on the street
An intercontinental cool
So if you wanna break the rules
You better make a move
Get in the transcendental groove

A line of everpassing masses do their own thing
I'm just here to spread the groove
They spout and they sputter,
Just mutter their lives away

Around it's all fads that disappear fast
Rock'n'roll seems the only thing that lasts
Feels like we're the only ones
Who came to stay

I got the transcendental groove
It really makes you wanna move
It makes you get up on your feet,
Get out on the street
An intercontinental cool
So if you wanna break the rules
Get in the transcendental groove

I got the transcendental groove
It really makes you wanna move
It makes you get up on your feet,
Get out on the street
An intercontinental cool

So if you wanna break the rules
And if you wanna keep your cool
Then you better make your move
We got the transcendental groove
