Could it be possible to change the colour of sound?
If you stare at the baby blue sky the memories of love will revive somewhere deep inside of you Hey, on the other side of the seven seas someone is there waiting just for you Just ask for it and your heart will feel the greatest pains of love

I need somebody to save me
Somebody with the same endless destiny Embrace the guidance of the stars inside of your heart

So it is ever blue, the sparkling sea!
The only sight I'll ever truly love!
The future has over flown with the power of my deepest love!

Somewhere there is a lovable person
Somewhere there is the perfect place for us
Of course you know, it is there, guarding my feelings shining somewhere on the horizon!
