Come on

When she walked in with her painted lips
Did she tease you for your flirty quips?
Did she leave you frozen with the wrong words chosen?
You gotta show why she can't resist
Make her blush when you put your hands on her hips
She's gonna keep on playing until you stop chasing
So wrap your arms around her body
Tell her all she needs to know

Give a little heart and soul
Let your body lose control
Give a little oh oh ooh
Give a little
Wrap your arms around and give a little whooh!

You gotta show her when she can't decide
You gotta hold her with that look in your eyes
And when you move in close take your time
Leave an empty shoulder, let her move in closer
And wrap your arms around her body
Tell her all she needs to know
Give a little heart and soul
Let your body lose control
Give a little oh oh ooh
Give a little
Wrap your arms around and give a little
Come on!

(wrap your arms around her body)
You know you wanna hold her body, yeah
(wrap your arms around her body)

Well she loves to keep you in suspense
You know she loves to keep you in suspense
But you know she just wants to dance

Give a little heart and soul
Let her body lose control

Give a little oh oh ooh
Give a little
Wrap your arms around and give a little
