I've told you a thousand times
She is the end of, the end of the line
You ignore every sign
Cause you're blinded by the sparkle in her eyes

You don't even love her
You need to find another
How could you love her when you're not set free
You don't even love her
But you keep it under cover
You don't even love her but you make believe

Don't give me one more lie
You been telling yourself she was justified
She loves you, you want her to need you
Every promise you see through
Just open up your eyes

You don't even love her
You need to find another
How could you love her when you're not set free
You don't even love her
But you keep it under cover
You don't even love her but you make believe

You gotta quit make believing
Try betting on me
It's just make believe
You gotta quit your deceiving
You gotta set yourself free
It's just make believe

You don't even love her
You need to find another
How could you love her when you're not set free
You don't even love her
But you keep it under cover
You don't even love her but you make believe

You don't even love her
You need to find another

How could you love her when you're not set free
You don't even love her
But you keep it under cover
You don't even love her but you make believe

You just make believe cause you're not set free
Just quit your deceiving
Try betting on me
It's just make believe

You don't even love her
You need to find another
How could you love her when you're not set free
You don't even love her
But you keep it under cover
You don't even love her but you make believe
