The more I love you
The more I'm lovin' you
The more I need you
The more I'm needing to
I surrender what I thought I knew
One look in your eyes I know my games are through

You've been holding on and I've been holding back yeah

We may not make it out alive whoa
What does it matter if your here by my side?
We may not make it out alive
What does it matter?
It's just a matter of time.

Reservation
is sneaking up on me
Was I mistaken
To let you get to me?
I've overtaken
In ways I've never known
So please don't break me
We've still got a ways to go

Cause we're still holding on Just hoping for the best

We may not make it out alive whoa

What does it matter if your here by my side?
We may not make it out alive
What does it matter?
It's just a matter of time
It's just a matter of time

These memories that we've got
May not amount to much
But I'm so glad that we've got 'em
We cannot be what we're not
But it's too late to get out
Or shed a dear for the doubt

Aw yeah

We're just holding on Just bracing for the worst

We may not make it out alive, whoa (we may not make it out alive)

What does it matter if you're here by my side?

We may not make it out alive

What does it matter?

It's just a matter of time

It's just a matter of time yeah
