I've never had a true obsession but that's what you turned out to be spent hours reeling
The days you're stealing Well, they might be the death of me take me alive
take my breath, my heartbeat inside
If you let me I'll give you
All that's worth taking
Take my time
I've never needed conversation
To fill an empty afternoon
Your touch it wakes me
Your love it makes me Every moment with you ends too soon
take me alive
take my breath, my heartbeat inside
If you let me I'll give you
All that's worth taking
Take my time
oh won't you take my time
