"Space"

You treat me like a monkey in a cage you just dig and tease

When you light the flame it needs air to breathe
When you ridicule Can't you see that you're the fool
Oh its just a waste of time

So why don't you give me some space
Why don't you get outo my face
Why don't you make the world a better place
Why don't you give me some space

You treat me like a lapdog on a lead that you can tame
But its not to lead it's a choker chain Can't you see you antagonise I've weighed you up to size
Too heavy my scales have busted

So why don't you give me some space
Why don't you get outo my face
Why don't you make the world a better place
Why don't you give me some space
