A time not to long ago, friends would come and go. But one or two would seem to stick around. Hangin' out like every day, seems they'll never go away. Best friends are forever, they'll always be down. It seems we're at the start of where things fall apart. It won't be long before we go our separate ways. you've changes and so have I, I think I know the reasons why but I can't take us back to the good old days. How could you change so much, you changed so drastically. It wasn't long ago that you agreed with me. You wanted to have fun, to live life was to play. What could have happened to make those feelings go away. Go away, go away, go away. How could you change so much, you changed so drastically. It wasn't so long ago that you agreed with me. You wanted to have fun, to live life was to play. What could have happened to make those feelings go away!
