You rolled the dice and it came up your face twice.
All it took, now there's a new chapter in your book.
You decline, losing your health, losing your mind.
Your own business, this can't be happening to me.
Yes this is happening, yes this is happening to you.

You knew the game and you lost big time, such a shame.
On you, now what the hell you gonna do with the days
That are numbered and quickly fade away.
From your home, all alone, this can't be happening.
Yes this is happening, yes this is happening to you.

This is really happening to you.

Such a young age to learn the hard way.
There are some things that don't ever go away.
The fear haunts your mind as the poison does your body.
Fate doesn't care what you do or don't deserve.
Wish I could tell you that things will be ok,
But not all stories have a happy ending.
This can't be, This can't be, This can't be happening to me.
This is happening to you.
