I can see it in your eyes, see it your eyes
See it in your eyes it's me you despise
I can see it in your eyes, see it in your eyes
You're believing all the lies I see it in your eyes

You're blaming me and I'm blaming you and there Isn't one damn thing that either of us can do Cause' you think I get all the breaks
I think all you do is take
We both end up empty handed, No one gets the cake

There's a fine line between black and white
On the outside we appear as different as day and night
But deep inside our souls we share the same pain
We're both at the bottom of the heap and it's driving us insane

United we stand, and divided we fall
And we keep on falling 'til there's nothing left at all
But still you stand on the other side
Even though we're in the same boat
I guess it'll always be that way your hands around my throat

There's a fine line between truth and lies Keep that in mind the next time you hear your families cries
Live your whole life filled with hate, you have nothing to gain
We both gotta make it in this world and it's driving us insane
