And in that perfect place, with a dream of a place that you met, and a lonely feel,...

But all the childish things, and all the childish things that you said, when you were young in your head and you wasn't...

And if you say that its OK then it's OK for you to do
And if you say that its alright then it's alright for you And did we say that it's OK then it's OK for you to do now
You know it must be alright you know it must be alright

But you went too far,...wrong way But you went too fast and now the only thing you could ever ever need
When it's not there it's all gone

And didn't we say that it's OK then it's OK for me to do And didn't we say that it's alright then it's alright for you
And didn't we say that it's OK then it's OK for us to do
You know it must be all hype you know it must be alright

Don't try to catch the fly you don't have to try And it's landed on me and i don't know why Won't you try to neck the fly, you don't have to try And it breeds on you and we all know why

Say gonna make it alright, you say gonna make it all High, high, high, high, high, high
High, high, high, high, high, high
High!
