You are so beautiful, my friend
I'm in love with you, again
And every time that you fade your eyes
I wake up screaming and I fantasize

I'm yours again
I cannot escape, without you there is no me
With you until the end
All over again and again and again

You're so beautiful girlfriend
The love I make to you
Darling, I surrender
And every time that we fade to one
We shine together melting in the Sun

I'm yours again
I cannot escape, without you there is no me
With you until the end
All over again and again and again

I'm yours again
I cannot escape, without you there is no me
With you until the end
