In my head you're a love song,
in my head you're a love song
and i've been waiting for you so long, cause in my head you're a love songâ€¦ sweat on the walls, sweat on my skin, the kick drum feels like it's breaking in into my belly and on my spine, 'til my whole body is beating time she calls attention like a heart attack! she's at the bar i try to catch her eye but she don't look my way, so i play it cool, let the music playâ€¦

in my head you're a love song,
in my head you're a love song
and i've been waiting for you so long, what's your name and where you come from?

so beautiful she's a shining light, it must be fate that she's here tonight and i've got this song stuck in my head, and i must've played 'til my fingers bledâ€¦ a voice inside as i make my move says "don't even try it, she's too good for youâ€¦" always my own worst enemy, just play it cool, let the music playâ€¦ just play it cool and let the music playâ€¦ that perfect moment when your eyes meet mine, slide time slows down, light and speed unwind yeah, you got style, you got grace you're a shining example of the human race a shining example of the human raceâ€¦

in my head you're a love song,
in my head you're a love song
and i've been waiting for you so long,
what's your name and where you come from?
in my head you're a love song,
and i've been waiting for you so long you blow my mind, where you come from?

girl you blow my brains, you make me kill me!
