Get a little sentemetal when I fall
I get a little to much when you push me to far Don't you be sad but I'm the best that you have

It hurts a little to much and it got out of hand
I know it so wrong been there before but I always want more
I hope you can see you don't mad at me go set me free

Oh no here comes that sick bitch again
So put your guard up because she want a sick man Someday she will be your friend and break you down down again

My friend

You name me to the wanted if I don't answer your call You say it aint easy and easy you are Feel a bit sad and it's bad give shit to me that's what she said

I know it so wrong been there before but I always want
I hope you can see you don't mad at me go set me free

So put your guard up because she want a sick man Someday she will be your friend and break you down
down again

Oh no here comes that sick bitch again
So put your guard up because she want a sick man
down again

My friend again

I get a little sentemetal when I fall
I get a little to much when you push me to far
You say it aint easy and easy you are go set me free

Oh no here comes that sick bitch again

So put your guard up because she want a sick man Someday she will be your friend and break you down
down again

Oh no here comes that sick bitch again
So put your guard up because she want a sick man Someday she will be your friend and break you down
down again

My friend again
My friend yea
Again

My friend
