(Hess/Lesperance)

Now that I've swam into waters I never wanted to I'm in hook, line and sinker
I want another life that comes with a guarantee
And batteries so I have strength for you
Since you came undone
A despondent fool
Swimming with chains in the river
A drowning soul
The queen of lies turns blue
Now I've figured out your conscience has never been awakened

Asleep your days of a holy child
Alive are your venomous teeth biting in me
So I've paved the road to ruin
Since you came undone
A despondent fool
Swimming in chains in the river
A drowning whore
The queen of lies turns blue
