You have a way of fighting
Everything I do
And all your finger pointing
Is pointing back, right back to you

Don't cha give me reasons?
Don't cha give me lies?
Just give me the truth and
Let me decide, let me decide

You're so far away
I can't reach you...

Caught up in your world
I won't ever learn
It's hard to stay
But hard to leave you

I don't get enough
But I won't give you up
It's hard to stay
Or walk away

Maybe I've been mistaken
Maybe I've been deceived
I'm lying next to a stranger
We're incomplete, yeah, you and me

You're so far away
I can't reach you...

Caught up in your world
I won't ever learn
It's hard to stay
But hard to leave you

I don't get enough
But I won't give you up
It's hard to stay
Or walk away

Caught up in your world
I won't ever learn
It's hard to stay
But hard to leave you

I don't get enough
But I won't give you up
It's hard to stay
Or walk away

Caught up in your world
I won't ever learn
It's hard to stay
But hard to leave you

I don't get enough
But I won't give you up
It's hard to stay
Or walk away

Caught up in your world
I won't ever learn
It's hard to stay
But hard to leave you

I don't get enough
But I won't give you up
It's hard to stay
Or walk away

Caught up in your world
I won't ever learn
It's hard to stay
Or walk away...
