It's gonna take some time till I'm over you
I gave you it all, there was nothing I wouldn't do
You know that it hurt so bad when I found out the truth
That you've been running around oh, I was such a fool

I know I can't keep holding on
'Cause it's hard for me
And now that you're gone
I'm haunted by your memory

How long till my heart can love again
I tried and I tried, I don't know what else to do
How long till this broken heart mends
Will I ever be over you

So many sleepless nights since we've been apart
They say time will ease the pain tell this broken heart

Oh, I know I can't keep holding on
'Cause it's hard for me
And now that you're gone
I'm haunted by the memory

How long till my heart can love again
I tried and I tried, I don't know what else to do
How long till this broken heart mends
Will I ever be over you

Oh, I know I can't keep holding on
'Cause it's hard for me
And now that you're gone
I'm haunted by your memory

(Tell me how)
How long till my heart can love again
(Heart can love again)
I tried and I tried, I don't know what else to do
How long till this broken heart mends
Will I ever be over you
