Distant stare
Way beyond repair
Lipstick and hair
Cover every tear

Every wound, every fear
Til you just don't seem to notice who you aren't

One day we're falling apart
Leading me on, leading you off
You always will bury us all
Leading me on, leading me on

Talk is cheap
Flowing from the weak
You lie and decieve
But only when you speak

Is it cold is it bleak
As you wander through the darkness of your heart?

One day we're falling apart
Leading me on, leading you off
You always will bury us all
Leading me on, leading me on

Every wound, every fear
Til you just don't seem to notice who you aren't

One day we're falling apart
Leading me on, leading you off
You always will bury us all
Leading me on, leading me on

One day we're falling apart
Leading me on, leading you off
You always will bury us all
Leading me on, leading me on
