

Harem Scarem "Looking Back"

Visit "Looking Back" on MotoLyrics.com

Well I remember all the nights you came to me
You said you wanted more from life
Wanted anything more than me
Would you believe I was happy at the time
Thoughts of you still wonder in my mind
Every time we said goodbye
It took another tear from my eye
Looking back I'm not the lucky one
Now your face is just a haunting memory
And I wonder if as time goes on
If you ever think of me
All the time my heart was aching
You walked into the room
Just at the time I thought I'd give in
I found someone new
