(Hess/Lesperance)
I'm the king of all pretenders
The end all be all of fakes
I prey on the mindless
And I like it
Your defenses all surrender
My senses all awake
I kill 'em with kindness
And they buy it
Now I'm not one to seek redemption
"The truth will set you free"
Is all a mild deception
And you better believe
That I'm lying

Lying
Lie to everyone everyday
The bitter pill of ages
You swallow everyday
If feels so timeless
Don't fight it
Now I give you inhibitions
Take your innocence away
Without even trying
'Cause I can
