(Harlan Howard)

Hello there stranger, you look kind of sad today
And I'll bet stranger, that things haven't gone your way
I'm sorry stranger, I once felt as bad as you Remember stranger, when you broke my heart in two?

I loved you stranger, I loved you so much back then
Much more stranger than you'll ever be loved again
Well bye, bye stranger, I hope you don't cry too long
No longer stranger than from every sundown till dawn.

--- Instrumental ---

I loved you stranger, I loved you so much back then
Much more stranger than you'll ever be loved again
Well bye, bye stranger, I hope you don't cry too long
No longer stranger than from every sundown till dawn...
