WE'LL NEVER LOVE AGAIN

Writer Harlan Howard

Oh the nights I've cried, how I'd die inside

Knowing we'll never love again, love again

One mistake I've made, what a price I've paid

Knowing we'll never love again

Passion ruled my mind, made my conscience blind

And a million times, I've paid for my sins

Darlin please forgive, I don't want to live

Knowing we'll never love again

I still hear you say, as you walked away

Knowing we'll never love again, love again

I was such a fool, broke love's golden rule

Now you say, we'll never love again
