given a chance, you know she might go far cuz she knows how to dress she's a hit in the bars, oh! she knows how to dance and how to read the stars oh, whatever it takes, no matter how hard

oh! somehow, we all gotta find a way to survive now somehow, we all got ta find a way to survive she's hot on the trail of a superstar she wants to ride on his wave she wants to be on his car, whoa!

and later tonight if she does her job she keeps his mind on her head she'll find her name on the charts

to keep us alive!

look out for yourself, you're really not gavotte so i take care of myself, i could show you the scars! whoever it is, nomatter who you are there's that fine-looking face, you've got impossible sound!

somehow we all gotta find a way to survive
oh! somehow we all gotta find a way to survive, now
to keep us alive!
whoa!
just a way to survive!
