You walk, you talk, you wonder if you suck, you dare, you share, no one will ever care IÃfÂ, 've been there before The grass behind your door
You laugh, you bark and wait until itÃfÂ, 's dark
No matter what itÃfÂ, 's like heÃfÂ, 'll be back for more anyway Ease my mind without the color grey This faintly shining shadow that some people claim to see... is surrounding your body naturally Surrender, remember, when you were still a member You were god, you solved, appeared in our highest thoughts
Who said: "I wonder why the sky must be so high?!"
No matter what itÃfÂ, 's like heÃfÂ, 'll be back for more
anyway Ease my mind without the color grey
This faintly shining shadow that some people claim to
see... is surrounding your body naturally
Is it right or wrong? DonÃfÂ, 't put this question inward Does it feel, does it hurt if you once again dig in the dirt?

So faithful in love, so doubtless in war, I wonÃfÂ, 't ask,
I wonÃfÂ, 't fight but does it work the same way twice?!
No matter what itÃfÂ, 's like heÃfÂ, 'll be back for more
anyway Ease my mind without the color grey
This faintly shining shadow that some people claim to
see... is surrounding your body naturally
