Running faster while you're waiting Does it matter, mysteries to reveal

When you were here the world started to turn

She's the one I'm reborn

It feels so good to burn, to make it all undone Lost
inside your sad machines

The warmth inside your grain, the breezes and the sunshine... she's all I really need!

Morning after we've been waiting... fake the bastard

It feels so good to burn, to make it all undone Lost
inside your sad machines

The warmth to swell the grain, the bruises on your knees... try to make me believe!

It feels so good to burn, it feels so good to learn...
